guide's 18 year old cousin. No one else was home at the other houses.

That day God used a 14 year old boy to direct our path to the hearts He had prepared.

Don Dumas and I met a lady in an area where they had begun a home church. They have 12 people attending the church but only one Bible. We left the lady enough Gideon PWT's so each person could have their own.

High in the Andes Mountains we spent a week observing God at work in the hearts and lives of the beautiful Quichua Indians. Glory to God!

We had 79 decisions for Christ, and we distributed over 250 New Testaments.

WHAT YOU CAN DO

Partnership missions give you an opportunity to become personally involved in what God is doing in world missions.

☐ Pray daily for the work in Nicaragua and Ecuador.

☐ Give financially. We are a faith mission and are dependent upon your financial gifts. Please pray about becoming involved in the support of our mission. "As long as the Lord provides I will give ... $25 $50 $100 $___ a month."

☐ Pastor and Church Leadership Training Ministry in Ecuador. Each trip costs approximately $3,000 and covers airplane tickets, room and board, rent for truck, gas, local workers, textbooks and food for students.

☐ Pray for wisdom to know where the Lord is leading to conduct evangelism workshops, and where to focus teaching ministry.

☐ We are presenting one-day, three-day weekend, and one week Evangelism Workshops in churches in Latin America. These are proven practical and effective personal evangelism workshops for pastors and church leaders.

☐ All gifts to Abide in Christ are tax deductible under IRS 501 (c) (3) tax exempt status.

"Expect great things from God!

Attempt great thing for God!"

Dr. John Howell's Report on Evangelism Team in Ecuador

Carl Mason, Wil Pounds, Alejandro, John Howell, Don Dumas

"I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself up for me" (Galatians 2:20).

A Abide in Christ presents evangelism conferences in Ecuador with the emphasis on teaching personal evangelism to Quechua pastors and leaders.

Don Dumas witnessing to Quechua lady

Don Dumas, Carl Mason and myself had the privilege of joining Bro. Wil Pounds for a week of evangelism in the mountains of Ecuador in early August 2011. The cool temperatures were a welcome relief to the scorching Arkansas heat.

Due to the late night arrival into Quito, we spent the night at the Radio HCJB's Guest House and departed early the following morning to Riobamba. Pastor Julio and his son, Edwin met us in Quito. Arriving in Riobamba we had an opportunity to meet our translators for the week and share time getting to know one another before the evening worship service.

Beauty filled the skies as the sun rose over the mountains early Monday morning. We drove up into the mountains to the community of Laguna San Martin. As Wil began his teaching, we headed out with our translators, sharing the gospel to those at home and working in the fertile fields. The fertile soil which we found many people were cultivating by hand pointed to their fertile hearts God had been cultivating before we arrived. What a blessing to share the Good News of Jesus Christ with such a beautiful people in an area where Christianity is less than 50 years old.

John with two Quechua teens.

The Quechua's are quite and somewhat reserved but at the same time open to listening and receptive to our presence. Always dressed modestly with the ladies wearing their hats topping their long straight black hair. Bright colored clothing identified the culture with the beauty of the landscape. Men wore ponchos to give them comfort from the mountain chill. Men and women wore black rubber boots like the ones my grandparents wore while farming.

At the first of the week, a 14 yr. old boy decided to go along with my translator and I. The young Quechua seemed as though he was on a mission to go to specific houses. He led us to a field where a young Quechua man and his wife were cultivating their small plot of land with hoes. Their two young children were there with them as they worked. Dedicated to their work they paused long enough to hear the gospel and both accepted Jesus Christ as their personal Savior.

John with Quechua guide and translator. The young lad led us uphill and beyond all the houses. I could not understand why we were passing all the houses but he appeared to be on a mission. After what seems to be several miles, but was only a few hundred yards, the young man headed across the road ditch and up an embankment. We topped a hill and there were 4 or 5 small houses. A young lady was standing outside by one of the houses.
